

I am opposed to further relaxing the media from buying more and more radio and TV stations. We do not need newspapers and networks having a monopoly giving one sided, biased, unreliable newscasting. Journalists should be fair and honest, not giving opinions of their own. Politics and journalism don't mix well in my opinion.